

H. Res. 293

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

September 22, 1999.

Whereas there are 105 historically black colleges and universities in the United States;

Whereas black colleges and universities provide the quality education so essential to full participation in a complex, highly technological society;

Whereas black colleges and universities have a rich heritage and have played a prominent role in American history;

Whereas black colleges and universities have allowed many underprivileged students to attain their full potential through higher education;

Whereas the achievements and goals of historically black colleges and universities are deserving of national recognition; and

Whereas Senate Resolution 178 would designate the week beginning September 19, 1999, as “National Historically Black Colleges and Universities Week”: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) supports the goals and ideas of “National Historically Black Colleges and Universities Week”; and

(2) requests that the President issue a proclamation calling on the people of the United States and interested groups to conduct appropriate ceremonies, activities, and programs to demonstrate support for historically black colleges and universities in the United States.

Attest:

Clerk.
